CM to meet Guv on July 26

Amid talks of his exit, B.S. Yediyurappa says privileged to be loyal worker of BJP

Bengaluru, July 22 (KMS,DM &BCT)- In what seems to be the clearest hint so far about Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa stepping down, the CM will meet Governor Thaawar Chand Gehlot at the Raj Bhavan here on July 26 at 11 am. On July 26, Yediyurappa Government completes two years in office and he is the BJP's first and only Chief Minister in South India.

Reports in Bengaluru this noon said that the Governor has granted an appointment to the CM and political analysts say that Yediyurappa is likely to submit his resignation to the Governor, paving way for a new Chief Minister chosen by the BJP leadership to govern for two more years.

The CM today said that he was expecting a message and instructions from the High Command on July 25, a day before his Government completes two years and from the 26th, he will "do what the High Command says and focus on building the party." The CM was initially scheduled to attend a Legislature Party meeting on July 26 and hold a luncheon with MLAs on July 25 but the programmes have now been rescheduled.

This morning, Yediyurappa asked his supporters not to protest for him or bat for him. "Mutt Seers have backed and blessed me. This has never happened before," he added as he thanked the High Command which allowed him to continue even after attaining the age of 75, a self-imposed criterion of BJP.

Clearly giving a hint of his exit, Yediyurappa appealed to the party workers, fans and followers not to stage any demonstrations or resort to any other activities that are harmful for the party. The CM did not comment on whether he had laid down any conditions before the party High Command before quitting.

Santhosh-Revanna meeting in Delhi raises political dust

Bengaluru, July 22 (KMS, SSV & BCT)- The luncheon meeting between Holenarasipur JD(S) MLA H.D. Revanna and BJP National General Secretary B.L. Santhosh in Delhi has intrigued many in State politics and has given rise to speculations. Hassan MP Prajwal Revanna was also present.

B.L. Santhosh

H.D. Revanna

It is learnt that Santhosh had called Revanna to Delhi and discussed the current political scenario in Karnataka. The duo is said to have discussed the possible developments. Since the Seers of over 500 Veerashaiva - Lingayat Mutts are up in arms against the BJP over 'dumping' their community's mass leader, Yediyurappa might rebel against his own saffron party. In that situation, JD(S) support may be required to prevent the fall of BJP Government, sources said.

Former CM H.D. Kumaraswamy is said to have sent his elder brother Revanna to meet Santhosh in order to avoid him coming under the line of attack for his soft corner towards BJP.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Congress must quickly resolve the leadership crisis. However, it is pretty much clear by now that no one aside from the Gandhis is willing to step up to the leadership position. Or the Congress set up is such that a non-Gandhi can't take over. Either way, it doesn't help to have nobody in charge on a day-to-day basis.

India needs a strong national opposition party and Congress at the moment simply doesn't cut it. In fact, it isn't even in a position to lead an opposition coalition. Hence, in order to end this sense of stupor — particularly if the Gandhis can't step away — Rahul must once again take over the party leadership mantle. And leading Congress in the Lok Sabha will be a good start. Of course, this will once again allow BJP to level the charge that Congress is a family outfit. But at this point it may just be better to face that charge head on rather than live in fear of it. Rahul must bite the leadership bullet. — In The Times of India

Couple sleeps on balcony of their haunted home

France: A couple, who were convinced that their home is haunted, has been sleeping on the balcony of their house since over a month.

Patricia and David and their two children moved into an apartment in the social park of Semcoda, in Replonges, France, last September. Built in 2016 on land that previously accommodated an old hangar, their new home was spacious, well-lit and modern, but the family didn't get to enjoy it for two long, as bizarre things started happening. Patricia claims that her daughter started seeing strange things around the house soon after they moved in and after a while the whole family became convinced that paranormal activity was at play inside their apartment. Things got so bad that they had to install a tent on the balcony to get a peaceful night's sleep and they have been using it for over a month.

Sink cleans your phone while you wash hands

New York: A video of a high-tech sink that comes with a special slot for cleaning your smartphone as you wash your hands has been getting a lot of attention on social media.

Sadly there isn't much context to go with this viral clip, but then again, the video itself is pretty self explanatory. Here we have what looks like a fancy sink that features a thin slot where users can place their smartphones while they wash their hands. But that slot is more than just a holder; it "sucks" the phone where it proceeds to purge any and all viruses and bacteria by exposing the handheld to UV rays. When you're done, the cleaned smartphone is pushed out through the same slot.

HEALTH CAPSULE

Provide separate queue for senior citizens at RTO

Sir,

For the last two months I have gone through the harrowing process to renew my Driving Licence (DL). Thank God it is only once in 5 years.

Notwithstanding excellence in software prowess of our country and the tall claims of digitisation of the processes to remove needless visits to RTOs by the Central Ministry of Transport, it pains to see the failure of online process and long queues at the RTOs.

Semi-digitisation has left the citizen midway wondering what to do. For example, I had gone through all the online steps to apply for DL and generate the digital application and Medical Certificate (MC), uploaded the same with proofs of residence and Aadhaar (getting a MC is another painful process having to run around Government Hospitals only. Why registered private doctors are not permitted is a question yet to be answered). When it comes to making payment and selecting a slot, the webpage crashes back to home page, repeatedly.

The whole objective of digitisation is lost. So, back to personal visit to RTO. Three long queues to pay the fees, get photographed and finally submit and get an acknowledgement. No separate queues for senior citizens.

At the photographing counter, I am told that all that I had uploaded online has not been received in the RTO system. After some jugglery I was photographed.

To finally submit the application with the expired Driving Licence along with an envelope is another queue of 60-70 persons. During these COVID-19 times, imagine the vulnerable senior citizen to stand in three long queues for hours in the sun or rain.

I therefore appeal to the officers concerned at the RTO to not only provide a separate queue for senior citizens but also make the online process of renewal of DL a complete seamless experience by hemming in unsewn boundaries of the process and make only one visit to the RTO, if only unavoidable?

Hostels all set to re-open

as Corona cases come down in district

Mysuru, July 22 (MK&SSV)- Necessary arrangements are made for the re-opening of hostels which had remained closed for the last four to five months due to outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic.

With steady decline in Corona positive cases, the State Government has shown the green flag to throw open all post-matric hostels across the State.

Buoyed with the successful conducting of SSLC examination, the Government has decided to re-open all Degree, Post-Graduate and Professional Colleges from July 26. Already, pre-matric hostels have been opened.

The pre-matric hostels, which were closed in January 2020, were re-opened between January and April, 2021 for the sake of students appearing for the SSLC annual examination for the year 2019-20. Likewise, for the sake of Degree students, the post-matric hostels were opened from November 2020 up to April 2021. Subsequently, when the number of Corona positive cases increased during the second wave of pandemic, the hostels were closed again. At present, the situation is said to be under control with the steady decline in positive cases. Arrangements are on for the full opening of hostels.

Pre-matric hostels were opened two days before the commencement of the SSLC annual examination for the year 2020-21, following directions from the State Government. Precaution has been taken to check the spread of contagion. As many as 47 pre-matric hostels, 32 post-matric hostels and one residential school come under Department of Social Welfare. A total of 92 hostels come under Department of Backward Classes Welfare that included 49 pre-matric and 43 post-matric hostels. Likewise, Department of Scheduled Tribes Welfare manages 18 pre-matric and five post-matric hostels. Besides, there are 21 Ashra schools for the tribal children. Along with them, there are 37 Morarji Desai Hostels in the district.

Free from COVID treatment

Five hostels belonged to Social Welfare Department and 13 Morarji Desai Hostels had been converted into COVID Care Centres. Now those hostels had been relieved from COVID treatment. However, two hostels of Social Welfare Department at Bogadi 2nd stage and five Morarji Desai hostels were still continued as Covid Care Centres. They too are expected to be relieved from Covid treatment soon.

Cleaning work begins

Cleaning of all hostels has started in the district. The sanitiser bottles are kept in hostels for the use of inmates. Similarly, rooms, dining hall and other places used by students have been sanitised, said H.S. Bindya, District Officer, Department of Backward Classes Welfare officer.

She told SOM that students will be asked to maintain social distancing as well as to follow all safety protocol. Admission will be given to students as per the Government's direction, she added.

> All pre-matric hostels are opened for the sake of SSLC students as per the Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) announced by the Government. The post-matric hostels are likely to be opened soon following the Government's decision to start all Degree, PG and professional courses soon. We are expecting directions from the Government for the re-opening of those hostels.

ABVP submits memorandum to DC for re-opening of hostels

Mysuru, July 22 (SSV)- ABVP State Executive Committee Members Nagashree and Shivu have submitted a memorandum to Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. Bagadi Gautham seeking resuming all hostels and bus passes for students.

They said all colleges and hostels have remained closed since last three to four months due to second wave of COVID-19 pandemic. The ABVP will welcome the State Government's decision to re-start all degree and post-graduate courses soon. Since most of the poor and meritorious students are depending on the hostels, the District Administration must direct Departments of Social Welfare, Backward Classes and Minorities to re-open the hostels after thorough cleaning.

The DC was requested to instruct KSRTC authorities regarding the concessional bus passes for students as all the degree colleges are set to re-open soon.

New BPL cards to be issued after Government lifts curbs

Mysuru, July 22 (PM&SSV)- New ration cards will be issued only after the State Government shows the green signal, said M.K. Ramani, Assistant Director, Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs.

Speaking at a phone-in-programme organised here on Monday, she said that the issuance of new ration card has been temporarily put on hold due to COVID-induced lockdown.

The Government was busy in checking the spread of the pandemic. Till then the scrutiny of applications and documents submitted by the card seekers was going on. The spot inspection and re-verification of documents will commence once the Government gives permission. Since unlock process has started, the Government may soon give permission to resume issuing new ration card to citizens.

Out of the total 13 calls received, a majority of them pertained to non-issuance of Below Poverty Line (BPL) cards in the last three months despite submitting the applications. Rajeev, a caller complained about the collection of Rs. 10 per card holder for biometric by a Fair Price Shop in Ramabainagar. Since he didn't furnish the name and address of the shop, the officers promised to find out and take action against the shop owner. Apart from this, almost all the calls were regarding the Department facilities.

Uma Maheshwari of Kesare, Pushpa of Brindavan Extension, Ratna of Nanjangud and others sought to know reasons for delay in issuing the new BPL cards.

Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department Assistant Director M.K. Ramani seen answering a call during the phone-in programme on Monday and other officials look on.

The officers informed the callers that provision has been made only for changes and addition of names in the existing BPL cards to avail the medical facilities. But, no permission has been given for other things.

Answering to Jayaram of T.K. Layout and Lingegowda regarding Above Poverty Line (APL) cards, they said application must be submitted online. Other officers who were present included Second Division Assistant B.N. Shashidhar and Assistant Programme Officer Nagendra.

Card cancellation

The ration cards which are not used for long time will be cancelled. This was informed by Dept. Officers to Rajashekar, a caller from Dadadahalli in Mysuru taluk who has an APL card in Bengaluru address and wanted to transfer the card to Mysuru address. On checking the website, it was found that the card had not been used for long time because of which it had been cancelled.

'Don't tax vacant space'

Mysuru, July 22 (RK&SSV)- Former MLA Vasu has urged the State Government to give tax rebate for the vacant space in the surrounding of houses which is left for ventilation.

Vasu

In a letter to Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj, the former MLA said, it has been a tradition to leave vacant space on all sides of houses built 40 to 50 years ago. Trees are planted on that space for fresh air. Now, the decision of the Government to impose tax on the vacant space measuring more than 1,000 square feet was anti-environment. It is not right on the part of the Government to impose tax on the vacant spaces in religious centres, educational institutions and hostels. This new Act must be re-visited in the interest of people, he added.

He wanted the Minister to review the amendment made to the KMC Act as well as the circular issued by Department of Municipal Administration on Feb. 19, 2021 regarding leaving certain space as setback to ensure good ventilation between houses.

Extortion bid in the guise of 'journalists'

Lashkar Police register case against four

Mysuru, July 22 (SSV) - A case has been registered at Lashkar Police Station against four persons for allegedly trying to blackmail a doctor and extort Rs. 3 lakh from him by posing themselves as journalists.

In a complaint, Dr. Debashish Haldhar who runs 'Srihari Health Care' on KRH Road in Lashkar Mohalla, has accused Srinidhi, Manjunath and two others of blackmailing and demanding Rs. 3 lakh from him.

Dr. Haldhar offers treatment for piles and conducts Ayurveda Panchakarma at his clinic and is assisted by his brother, Sanjeev Haldhar.

On July 19 at about 10 am, when Dr. Debashish had gone out to purchase medicines, he receives a call from his brother and returns to the clinic immediately. Upon his return, he sees two persons identified as Srinidhi and Manjunath in the clinic, who introduced themselves as journalists. They then ask the doctor to switch off the CCTV camera installed inside the clinic. The so called journalists then accuse the doctor of providing treatment illegally and threaten to file a Police case against him.

At that time, a person who lives in a house adjacent to the clinic, asked the doctor to 'adjust' with the 'journalists.' Srinidhi and Manjunath claimed that they had videographed the clinic and would telecast the video if he (doctor) did not give them Rs. 3 lakh.

Srinidhi and Manjunath told the doctor that another doctor of a private hospital too had paid them money for offering treatment 'illegally.' They even said that they knew the District Health Officer and threatened of getting the clinic seized if he did not pay them. Finally, the amount was settled for Rs. 2.5 lakh and the doctor tells them that he would pay the money in the evening.

When the blackmailers came to his clinic to collect the money in the evening, the doctor expresses his inability to arrange the money and seeks two days time, to which the blackmailers, angered over the delay, shouted at the doctor for insulting them and tell him to keep the money with him besides telling him to expect a phone call from the Police Station and leave the clinic.

Based on the complaint lodged by Dr. Debashish, Lashkar Police have registered a case against Srinidhi, Manjunath, a cameraman and the neighbour under IPC Section 384, 385 and 34 and are investigating.

Trauma Care Centre relieved from COVID treatment

Mysuru, July 22 (MK&SSV)- A COVID Care Centre (CCC), which was functioning at the Trauma Care Centre on KRS Road in city, has been relieved from Corona treatment, thanks to steady decline in cases.

This CCC was established at Trauma Centre to treat patients due to spike in Corona positive cases in city and district. So far, 948 patients have been treated. This Centre has 135 beds, which included 101 oxygen, 24 without oxygen and 10 ICU beds. An oxygen generating plant has been set up in the Hospital premises. This has helped in treating patients, Dr. Prashanth, Medical Superintendent, PKTB&CD Hospital and the Nodal Officer of Trauma Care Centre, told SOM.

Treatment had been given to all patients on par with private hospitals. Over 20 doctors and the medical staff worked in three shifts daily to treat patients. Unfortunately, 50 persons have died of severe breathlessness in the Hospital. Initially, they faced problems to arrange medical equipment for the new Hospital. But the District Administration, donors and Private Hospital doctors offered their timely help. This came as a big boost for the doctors to treat patients. Now, Trauma Care Centre has no single patient. However, 14 patients are under treatment in the adjacent Super Specialty Hospital, he added.

KR & District Hospitals

At K.R. Hospital COVID-19 Emergency Ward, 122 persons are still undergoing treatment. Over 100 beds are vacant. Ten black fungus affected patients were under treatment.

Likewise, only 10 patients were taking treatment at District COVID Hospital.

Congress to bring out handbill

on 'achievements' of BSY Govt. on July 26

Handbills to be distributed to every house in State

Mysuru, July 22 (RKB&SSV)- Congress will bring out a handbill on two years 'achievements' of the BJP Government led by Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa (BSY) on July 26 and distribute it to every house across the State, said KPCC Spokesperson M. Lakshmana.

Addressing a news conference at the Congress Bhavan here this morning, he listed out the failures of the Yediyurappa Government in the last two years and said the State's borrowing, which was Rs. 2.65 lakh crore a few years ago, has now touched Rs. 4.85 lakh crore.

Over 10,000 industries have shut in last two years and the total loss suffered in economic front has been estimated at Rs.1.5 lakh crore, he said.

Thousands of people have died of Corona due to lack of preparedness of the BJP Government to handle the second wave of COVID-19 pandemic. Are all these the achievements of Yediyurappa, he questioned.

Lakshmana said the 17 Congress and Janata Dal (Secular) legislators, who joined BJP two years ago, will be dumped once Yediyurappa steps down from the CM post on July 26 or 27. The BJP has the distinction of kicking the ladder once it reaches the top. This kind of treatment had been meted out to many leaders in the past and the same thing will be done to those 17 MLAs who played a major role in the installation of the BJP Government in 2019.

He flayed Revenue Minister R. Ashok and other BJP Ministers for blaming the Congress leaders for whatever is happening in the State. By doing this, they were trying to create differences of opinion between Opposition Leader in the State Legislative Assembly Siddharamaiah and KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar.

Where is Vishwanath now?

Taking a dig at BJP MLC A.H. Vishwanath for lambasting former Ministers M.B. Patil and Shamanur Shivashakarappa for favouring the continuation of Yediyurappa as the CM, the Congress Spokesperson said that statement has been made by the duo as office-bearers of the Akhila Bharatiya Veerashaiva Mahasabha and not of the Congress party. Before that let Vishwanath clarify in which party he is in now —Congress, BJP or JD(S).

Lakshmana said the Veerashaiva - Lingayat voters were regretting for supporting the BJP in previous Assembly elections. They will definitely vote for Congress which always believes in uplift of all communities.

City Congress Secretary Shivanna and City Seva Dal President Girish were present at the press meet.

Who can fill strongman Yediyurappa's big shoes?

New Delhi, July 22- Several names are doing the rounds as a possible replacement for the 78-year old Lingayat strongman B.S. Yediyurappa. By replacing Yediyurappa, the BJP wants to bring in a generational shift in the State's leadership and also a smooth transition of power. However, finding a suitable replacement for the 'undisputed mass leader' of the party will not be easy.

The party has to strike a balance and has to see to it that the move does not antagonise its core vote base, the dominant Veerashaiva-Lingayat community, over which Yediyurappa wields considerable influence.

Prominent among the names doing the rounds as probable successor to Yediyurappa is that of BJP National General Secretary C.T. Ravi. Other names include Union Minister Pralhad Joshi, BJP National General Secretary B.L. Santhosh. Ravi, who is also a former Minister, is said to have the backing of RSS leaders and BJP's National Organisational Secretary B.L. Santhosh.

While Joshi and Santhosh are Brahmins, Ravi, who is MLA from Chikkamagaluru, is a Vokkaliga, another dominant community in the State. Another Brahmin name that is being talked about is Assembly speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri. There has been no Brahmin Chief Minister in the State since 1988, after Ramakrishna Hegde.

Meanwhile, there are also talks that the current Deputy Chief Ministers Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan and Laxman Savadi may continue in the post and Home Minister Basavaraj Bommai may be elevated as the Deputy CM, replacing the incumbent Govind Karjol, who may be given a plum portfolio.

Prominent Lingayat Community leaders such as Murugesh Nirani, Arvind Bellad, Basanagouda Patil and four other leaders from the community may find a place in case a new Cabinet comes into existence.

The BJP is also said to be planning to drop senior Ministers K.S. Eshwarappa and Jagadish Shettar and utilise their services for party organisation and senior Minister R. Ashok may get the Home portfolio, sources said.

Kodi Mutt Seer predicts political turmoil before Sankranti

Sirsi, July 22- Kodi Mutt Seer Sri Shivananda Shivayogi Rajendra Swamiji, who is known for making political predictions, has said that there will be a big political turmoil in the country between November and Sankranti in January next year, which may have global ramifications.

Speaking to press persons after visiting Eeechalu Betta Bhoodevi Temple in Sirsi taluk of Uttara Kannada District yesterday, the Seer said that there may be heavy rains across the country, causing floods and other natural disasters.

More people die of virus scare than the virus, the Seer said, referring to Karnataka politics that a political storm that may arise, may calm down. "I cannot say how the political storm will pan out," he added.

Without Yediyurappa, BJP can't return to power: Dr. Swamy

Bengaluru, July 22 (UNI) - Former Union Minister Dr. Subramanian Swamy on Wednesday said that without B.S. Yediyurappa, the BJP cannot return to power in Karnataka.

Taking to twitter, he posted, "It was Yediyurappa who first brought BJP to power in Karnataka. Some conspired to remove him since he would not be a chamcha."

"Without him BJP could not return power in the State. Only upon his return to BJP could the party win again. Why repeat the same mistake?" he asked.

"I am privileged to be a loyal worker of the BJP. It is my utmost honour to serve the party with the highest standards of ethics and behaviour. I urge everyone to act in accordance with party ethics and not indulge in protests/indiscipline that is disrespectful and embarrassing for the party," Yediyurappa said

Yediyurappa travelled to Delhi over the past weekend and was reportedly told by party leaders and Prime Minister Narendra Modi that he should work towards bringing the BJP to power again — in what is being seen as a sign that the BJP is expecting the 78-year-old veteran to resign of his own volition in the coming days.

He has been facing what was seen as hostility from some BJP MLAs. Some leaders including MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal, Tourism Minister C.P. Yogeeshwar and MLC A.H. Vishwanath has spoken against Yediyurappa, despite warnings of disciplinary action by the leadership.

They had hit out at Yediyurappa and said his son and party State Vice-President B.Y. Vijayendra was "running the Government in Karnataka."

Yesterday, Yediyurappa met Veerashaiva-Lingayat community Mutt chiefs. The community, which comprises 16 percent of the State's population and is seen as the BJP's big support base in the State, are backing the Chief Minister. Several of them have warned the BJP against any move to dislodge Yediyurappa, who also belongs to the community.

Veerashaiva Mahasabha opposes change of guard

Bengaluru, July 22 (UNI)- Coming out in support of Yediyurappa, who is a Veerashaiva-Lingayat, the Akhila Bharatha Veerashaiva Mahasabha has urged the BJP High Command not to change leadership.

Addressing a press meet here yesterday, Mahasabha National President Mahantesh Patil said that Yediyurappa has put in untiring efforts to bring the BJP to power in Karnataka. Claiming that developmental works are going on in a full scale in the State and it is not right to remove Yediyurappa at this critical stage, Patil opined that talks about change of leadership is both confusing and misleading.

Mahasabha Youth Wing President G. Manohar Abbigere said Yediyurappa had done a wonderful job during COVID crisis and it is not correct to give rise to speculations about his replacement at this critical juncture. Meanwhile, asserting that the BJP High Command has not given any hint of change of leadership, Revenue Minister R. Ashok said that Yediyurappa will continue. He said that the Opposition Congress is creating unnecessary confusion. "Lingayat leaders in the Congress such as M.B. Patil and Shamanur Shivashankarappa have voluntarily expressed their support to Yediyurappa," he noted.

Admitting that the BJP will have to face a difficult situation if Yediyurappa is asked to quit, Ashok maintained that the removal of BSY will also lead to a leadership crisis in the party.

Renukacharya calls on Arun Singh in Delhi

Political Secretary to Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa M.P. Renukacharya called on Karnataka State BJP In-charge Arun Singh in New Delhi this morning and discussed political development. Arun Singh also applauded the efforts of Renukacharya during the COVID-19 pandemic in his Constituency. (Pic. by M.M. Joshi)

Santhosh-Revanna meeting

Santhosh is a full-time RSS volunteer from Karnataka, who is controlling the reins of State BJP. He is a powerful figure in charge of the party but often at odds with BSY. He rarely meets people outside BJP and Sangh Parivar. A sharp analyst, Santhosh likes to control the levers of power from behind the scene. According to sources, Revanna and his son (Hassan MP Prajwal Revanna) met the BJP think-tank and discussed swift political developments. Top leaders in the saffron party, many BJP CMs and Central Ministers wait for an appointment with Santhosh. Under this circumstance, Santhosh asking Revanna to meet him in Delhi has surprised many.

Century-old platform weighing scale adorns Mysuru Rail Museum

Mysuru, July 22- Taking advantage of the second lockdown inducing the closure of the Museum to public for over two months, the Mysuru Rail Museum has added several new artefacts and features to its collection, including the over a century-old 250 kg-capacity (7 mounds) mechanical weighing machine.

This machine was manufactured in the year 1907 by W & T Avery Ltd., a British manufacturer from Birmingham, who were the patentees and manufacturers of every description of weighing apparatuses for Railways, ironworks, collieries, etc.

Most of the Railway Stations had Platform weighing scale of different capacity — 250 kg to 1,000 kg — of this Company to weigh parcels and luggage tendered for transportation by rail as weight-checking was mandatory in the presence of the sender.

This century-old platform weighing scale was kept in a dilapidated condition in Shivapura Station near Tarikere and during the course of Station inspection by Rahul Agarwal, Divisional Railway Manager, South Western Railway, Mysuru Division, he spotted this and was brought to Mysuru.

This is now placed in the Toy Train Station of the Rail Museum which is incidentally a replica of Stations built during the time of the Mysore State Railway (MSR) owned by the erstwhile Princely State of Mysore.

Besides providing released wooden sleepers in the pathways to prevent damage to lawn, wooden pedestals have been placed near popular outdoor selfie points. A service certificate in manuscript issued by Bombay Baroda & Central India Railway (BB & CIR) to one of their employees in the year 1931 adorning the wall of the indoor gallery rekindles the nostalgia of a bygone era.

'Q' managers for orderly movement of visitors in the ticketing area, introduction of house-keeping and security services, more of history books in the museum's reference library, etc., are the steps initiated to gradual upgrade of the museum to international standards.

Rahul Agarwal, Divisional Railway Manager, Mysuru Division, under whose instructions the new artefacts have been added, has directed the authorities concerned that items with historical value lying in different places of the Division must be retrieved and restored for preservation to enable visitors to get a sense of the how Railway system has evolved over the years.

Students write second and last paper of SSLC exam

Mysuru, July 22 (MTY&DM)- Braving the COVID-19 pandemic for the second time this week, thousands of SSLC students from across the district appeared for the Language paper exam this morning, which is the second and last paper of the exam (2020-21), held in a changed pattern only for this year due to COVID-19 pandemic.

Today's exam was held for first language, second language, third language and NSQF subjects.

The exam was held (10.30 am to 1.30 pm) in 237 centre across the district, including 72 in the city, with all Government SOPs and COVID Appropriate Behaviour (CAB) in place at all the centres. The exam halls were sanitised ahead of the exam for ensuring the safety and health of students.

In Mysuru district, a total of 38,989 students, including 37,474 regular, 1,081 private and 434 repeater students had registered for the exam.

Just as the first paper exam (comprising of core subjects — Maths, Science and Social Sciences) which was held on July 19, most of the students seemed unscary and were seen entering their exam hall with confidence.

All the students were required to mandatorily wear face mask, maintain physical distance and use hand sanitisers. Also, the students were checked for their body temperature before they were allowed to enter their exam hall. Health Care workers, Scouts and Guides students and volunteers from several other organisations helped the Department in screening the students for health.

The question papers, which were kept in the Treasury at the Deputy Commissioner's (DC) office, were dispatched to the exam centres across the district under tight security with armed Policemen guarding the vehicles that carried the question papers.

The vehicles, which were assigned to ply on 12 routes, were allowed to exit the Treasury one by one, with vehicles travelling to far off taluk centres such as Periyapatna, H.D. Kote and Saragur leaving first.

Special squads led by DDPI Dr. Panduranga and Nodal Officers visited the exam centres for supervision.

With exams over, the students can now look forward to the results, which is scheduled to be announced on Aug. 10, as declared by the Minister for Primary and Secondary education S. Suresh Kumar, a couple of days ago.

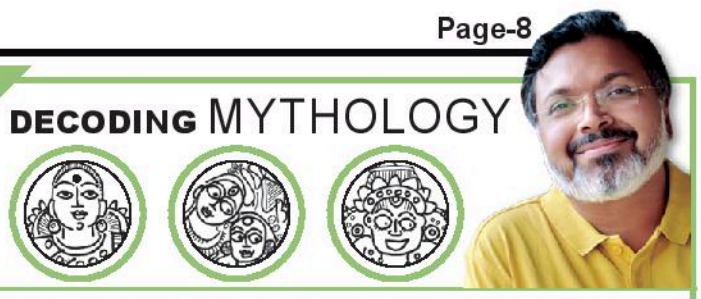
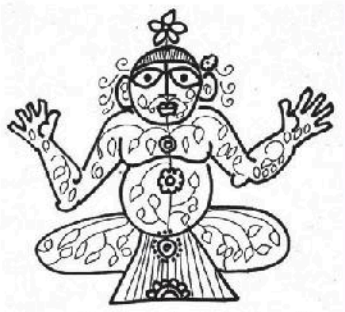
DECODING MYTHOLOGY



Dr. Devdutt Pattanaik - Author, Speaker, Illustrator, Mythologist

Dayananda & Vivekananda



The 19th century saw Hinduism being re-framed for two reasons. First was missionary activity that, with its aim of gaining converts, consciously spotlighted aspects of Hinduism that the elite could not explain and found embarrassing.

Second was exposure to humanistic values of the Enlightenment, with ideas such as equality and justice. The re-framing that followed came to be known as the Hindu 'renaissance'. The choice of term, 'renaissance', was an obvious reference to European 'renaissance' of the 15th century when religion was confronted with reason.

This re-framing was not homogeneous. Different groups moved in very different directions. Some rejected popular Hindu rituals that involved, amongst other things, the worship of images, trees and cows. Others sought to create scientific (often pseudo-scientific), or at least logical (or pseudo-logical), explanations that justified the rituals. Some saw the customs and beliefs as having gone through corruption, in need of purification. Others felt the customs and beliefs were perfect and needed no modification; they were simply misunderstood. This diversity becomes obvious when we study two major Hindu religious leaders of this period: Swami Dayananda Saraswati and Swami Vivekananda.

Dayananda was born in Gujarat while Vivekananda was born in Bengal. Both came from affluent families. Both were well-educated. Both chose to be monks, rather than householders. Both believed in equality, justice and universal brotherhood. Both believed in nationalism and freedom from British rule. Dayananda was fluent in Sanskrit, loved to debate, but spoke increasingly in Hindi to make his idea accessible to the masses. Vivekananda was fluent in English and famous for his oratory; it was he who introduced the West to Hinduism. Both set up organisations to spread their ideas, Arya Samaj and Ramakrishna Mission. Both rejected the idea of caste. Both opened their organisations to women. Both Dayananda and Vivekananda had huge followers, Dayananda mostly in Hindi speaking areas of the North while Vivekananda in the Eastern and Southern parts of India.

But the two men had very different views on the Vedas. Dayananda gave more importance to the Samhitas, the collection of Sanskrit mantras, which he saw as divine revelations. Vivekananda on the other hand focussed on Upanishads, which formed the basis of the philosophy known as Vedanta, which means the acme of Vedic thought. Dayananda was completely against the Puranas, idol worship and temple rituals, but valued the yagna.

Vivekananda, as a follower of Ramakrishna Paramahamsa, who was a priest at a Kali temple, valued the traditional veneration of the Goddess as an icon.

Both had many critics — some sincere who disagreed with their interpretations; others simply envious of their success or plain cynics. Dayananda was criticised for his rather creative interpretation of Vedic verses, his criticism of other religions and his concept of purification (shuddhi) to reclaim converts and bring them back to the Hindu fold. Vivekananda was criticised for travelling over the sea (that traditionally led to loss of caste), for his comfort with non-vegetarian food and his nationalistic re-framing of Hinduism.

In the 21st century, we would like to assume that former Hindu leaders thought alike and had no critics. But, like all things Indian, even the Hindu renaissance was complicated, messy, diverse and dynamic.

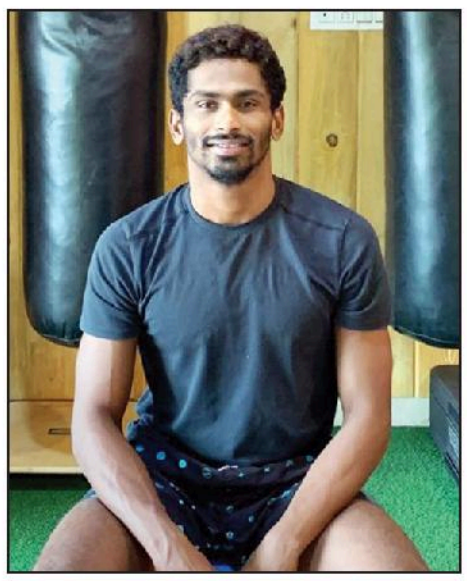
It was a case of now or never for the Kerala swimmer who qualified for the world games at the 58th Sette Colli Trophy in Rome with a timing of one minute, 56.38 seconds in the heats, 0.10 seconds quicker than the Olympic Qualifying Time (OQT) to make the direct cut to Olympics. It was also his second straight Olympics, which no other Indian has been able to achieve previously.

Sajan Prakash had gone through a tough phase over the last year or so including a career-threatening injury and he overcame it with sheer hard work and perseverance. In that tough phase, Bengaluru-based Physical Preparation Coach Kulletira Jeeth Devaiah helped Sajan Prakash overcome his difficulties and finally make it to the Olympics. Jeeth has his roots at Napoklu in Kodagu. In a chat with Star of Mysore, Jeeth spoke about his personal goals and achievements, future plans and training Sajan for the biggest stage in international sport. Excerpts:



Ace swimmer Sajan Prakash

By B.C. Thimmaiah

Star of Mysore (SOM): As a Physical Preparations Coach, tell us your association with Sajan Prakash and how your training and mentorship helped him.

Jeeth Devaiah: Sajan Prakash was in Railways and I too was. So we had a common ground. He was always a high performer and in 2014 just before the Rio Olympics — where he was the only swimmer to qualify — he had some kind of a niggle and since he knew me well he came to Pro Care Galen and Performance Centre in Bengaluru where I and my physiotherapist Dr. Gautham worked on him. Then he went to Rio and we were connected since then.

SOM: What was the nature of his problem?

Jeeth Devaiah: After Rio, Sajan moved to Thanyapura in Phuket, Thailand, where he was selected by the FINA Academy. During training, he was complaining of neck and shoulder pain. He wanted me to go there and help him out. In swimming, we call it a ground-based activity where we do a lot of core work, strength work and injury prevention work. I was in Phuket for a couple of months where I brought him to a level of fitness.

We had our plans cut out but unfortunately he had a major injury and which again not many could diagnose. Then he came back to Bengaluru and stayed with me in my house. I took care of him personally for 2 to 3 months where we did a proper rehab session and made him stop swimming temporarily. Later he went to Phuket where he started swimming and the pain recurred.

SOM: Was he able to overcome the pain?

Jeeth Devaiah: Yes, he was pretty hardworking and he could manage both swimming and pain management. We were in touch online on what needs to be done for injury management and things like that. He later moved to Dubai where his coach Pradeep and other physiotherapists took over. We had absolute trust that he would qualify for the Tokyo 'A' cut. Also, Sajan is disciplined and has a great sense of self-belief. We are proud of him.

Sajan Prakash's skills being evaluated.

SOM: Do you have any plans to go to Tokyo to see Sajan perform?

Jeeth Devaiah: I really wanted to but I have to go to Dubai first and Dubai is closed now due to COVID and the Indian Olympics team is flying from Dubai. If they were coming to India, then I would have considered it and that's my bad luck. The virus has played a spoilsport.

SOM: You have worked with Delhi Capitals IPL team. Please throw more light on this.

Jeeth Devaiah: Fitness has always been my forte. Not many people will dare to dream big. I trained at the highest level in cricket, hockey and football. I have been a hockey player myself and I started a job in Railways at the age of 19. In 2004, I forayed into a full-fledged career in physical preparation and started work with Indian Railways for the Ranji Trophy and that year, we won the trophy.

I have not looked back since then and my career graph went up. In 2004, I joined the Indian Cricket Team along with many trainers under Coach Greg Chapell, who was very particular about Indian players experiencing the best in the fitness scenario and the latest advancements. I was one among the four trainers selected to be with the Indian team and trained various teams till 2010. The same year I trained the Delhi Daredevils (now known as Delhi Capitals). And the same year I got an opportunity to train the women's hockey team before the London Olympics but unfortunately we did not qualify.

SOM: Where did you train football teams?

Jeeth Devaiah: That was Esbjerg Football Club, Denmark, in 2019 and also Esbjerg Academy Team. We won a tournament in Holland and people were shocked to see an Indian running behind the Danish team and it was a good experience in my career to understand how professional they are. Their sessions are all planned months in advance and I learnt to bring back the same to India. In 2014, I went to Australia and worked with the Australia National Rugby Team and Sydney Kings Men's Basketball.

I also worked with I League team Sudeva Delhi FC last year and we were only Indians and no foreigners as the promoters wanted to give maximum opportunity to Indian players. We fared pretty well considering we trained under a bio-bubble environment (no going outside) for months. Staying in a bio-bubble is draining physically and mentally as everything is restricted and your freedom is completely curtailed.

SOM: How was it working with Women's Hockey Team?

Jeeth Devaiah: That was in the World Cup and the girls had been to Argentina where they were beaten badly. At that time the team coach too was from Railways and we had a good understanding. They had no concept of fitness. I had to go in and change their mind-set. I had to teach the women that fitness is also important and made them follow strength training guidelines which they are still following for Tokyo Olympics.

There was a misconception that women should not lift more weights and I broke that. In fact, at one place in China where we had been for Asian Champions Trophy and just before the match we did one set of strength training, a warm up and straight ventured into the field to play. That was the confidence the girls had. And after 2010, the girls started understanding that fitness plays a crucial role and it was a good experience for me also.

SOM: How do you plan fitness programming?

Jeeth Devaiah: We plan the fitness programming according to the muscular and skeletal assessment. Our players are keener on skills rather than fitness, I would like for them to focus on both equally. My focus as a preparation coach is that they should not miss any games in terms of injuries so the first priority is strength and condition coaching. If you keep them fit without pain and aches they will be able to play more and give their best.

SOM: What are your goals and ambitions for the future?

Jeeth Devaiah: My goal is to work with an ISL (Indian Super League) team. I have worked with Sudeva Delhi FC and also with the Denmark League. ISL is more challenging and I am already in talks with a couple of teams.

Jeeth Devaiah training Sajan Prakash.

WORD OF THE DAY

Mulct

Pronunciation: MULKT.
Meaning: To punish by a fine; to defraud especially of money : swindle; to obtain by fraud, duress, or theft.
Origin: A fine assessed as a penalty for an infraction is generally considered justifiable. Fraud, on the other hand, is wrong—it's just the sort of thing that deserves a fine. So in mulct we have a unique word, one that means both "to fine" and "to defraud." The "fine" sense came first. Mulct was borrowed from the Latin word for a fine, which is multa or mulcta. The "fine" sense is still in use, mostly in legal contexts ("the court mulcted the defendant for punitive damages"), but these days mulct is more often used for an illegal act. It has been speculated that the "defraud" use may have developed from an association with the verb milk, in its "to exploit, to coerce profit from" meaning (as in "she was milked by the lawyers for everything she had"), but that speculation has never been proven.
Example: Francis was barred from the securities industry when it was discovered he had been mulcting investors for years.

THE ODD WORD

Magpiety

Garrulousness.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

For peanuts

Meaning: 'For Peanuts' means to do something for very little or no pay.
Origin: The origin of the idiom 'for peanuts' is credited to a Mr. Harry Mozley Stevens, who is often called the father of sports food service. An immigrant from England, Mr. Stevens began selling peanuts in 1895, when a peanut company called Cavanaros paid for advertising in the New York Giants game programs with peanuts, which Mr. Stevens would then sell to hungry fans. Mr. Stevens liked to jokingly state that he was "working for peanuts."
Example: "The students had very little money and were willing to work for peanuts."

TOKYO GAMES 2020 (July 23 - August 8, 2021)

Six officials, 'bare minimum' athletes in Opening Ceremony tomorrow

Tokyo, July 22- The participation of Indian athletes in the Olympic Games opening ceremony will be kept to a "bare minimum" in view of the COVID-19 threat, while only six officials from the contingent will be allowed to take part in the event on Friday. The athletes who have competitions lined up the next day will be discouraged from attending the event, the country's Deputy Chef-de-Mission Prem Kumar Verma told on Wednesday.

Indian Olympic Association (IOA) Secretary General Rajeev Mehta, who is in the city, said not many will be there keeping in mind the risk of infection.

"We will try to have a bare minimum group out there. Kam se kam athletes ko utara jaega. The Chef-de-Mission and the Deputy Chef-de-Mission will decide on the numbers tomorrow but our view is that the bare minimum should attend to ensure their safety in this crucial period," Mehta told.

India is being represented by more than 120 athletes in the Games with the overall contingent size being 228, including officials, coaches, other support staff and alternate athletes in view of the COVID-19.

"Six officials (from every country) are allowed at the ceremony but there is no cap on athletes. However, we have advised the athletes who have events the next day to skip the ceremony and focus on their game," Verma said after a meeting of the Chef-de-Missions but did not specify which officials from India will be there at the event.

"The ceremony is likely to last till midnight so it is better that they rest for their events the following day," he added.

The likes of 10m air pistol shooters Saurabh Chaudhary, Abhishek Verma, Apurvi Chandela and Elavenil Valarivan, who have events on the first competition day, will skip the ceremony along with Manu Bhaker, Yashaswini Singh Deswal, Deepak Kumar and Divyansh Singh Panwar will be shooting on the second day.

The Indian team has eight rifle, five pistol and two skeet shooters, besides six coaches and a physiotherapist in Tokyo.

Before the Coronavirus pandemic broke out, Indian shooters consistently dominated the sport, finishing on top of the table in four ISSF World Cups, in 2019. Chef-de-Mission B.P. Baishya said that a call on the number of Indian athletes who will participate will be taken on Thursday.

Boxers, archers and the men's and women's hockey teams are also scheduled to compete the day after the opening ceremony. "Those who don't have fights on Saturday will participate in the ceremony," a boxing contingent source told.

India have named men's hockey captain Manpreet Singh and six-time world champion woman boxer M.C. Mary Kom as the flag-bearers for the opening ceremony.

Sailor K.C. Ganapathy all set to make a mark at Olympics

Mysuru, July 22 (BCT)- For the first time, India will have more than two sailors at the Tokyo Olympics, including Kodagu-born Kelappanda Chengappa Ganapathy and Nethra Kumanan, the first Indian woman sailor.

K.C. Ganapathy

This is also for the first time India will be competing in more than one sailing event — Laser Radial, Laser Standard and 49er.

While Nethra Kumanan will be in Laser Radial and Vishnu Saravanan in Laser Standard, K.C. Ganapathy and Varun Thakkar will be in 49er.

According to Varun and Ganapathy, sailing, unlike other sporting disciplines, does not have multiple events to win, like a freestyle swimmer can swim in 100 mts 500 mts and so on and likewise an athlete can run in 100 mrs 400 mrs etc.

It is noteworthy that only in 2021 sailors from India have qualified for the Olympics and will be participating as qualified sports persons, as till date all entries have been through wild card entries or quota slots. Asia has one slot in each sailing class and Japan being the host country.

Ganapathy is the son of Kelappanda late Deepak Chengappa and Reshma Chengappa (from Allaranda family). His mother Reshma runs a furniture business in Chennai and the family is settled there. His grandparents are Kelappanda late Pratap and Padma Prathap. Padma resides at Kolthodu village near Hatur village in South Kodagu.
